Garo Yepremian

Garo Yepremian didn't know football- that all changed in 1966 when he played in as a place kicker for the Detroit Lions against the Baltimore Colts- this was also the first game he ever saw! His football career took off from there as he went on to a fifteen year career in the NFL playing for the Detroit Lions, Miami Dolphins, New Orleans Saints and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He only missed one season from 1966-1981 (1969) when he proudly volunteered to serve in the U.S. Army. Garo received honors as Pro Football Hall of Fame's choice as "The Kicker of the Decade" from 1970-1980. His illustrious career was highlighted by many record-breaking performances, most of which still stand. Garo scored 1070 points during his 15 year career and played in three Super Bowls, scoring in all three for a total of 11 points.

In May of 1981, Yepremian was inducted into the Florida Hall of Fame. In 2002 he formed the Garo Yepremian Foundation for Brain Tumor and Catastrophic Illness Assistance and Research, to aid in the fight for a cure for brain tumors, a condition which afflicted his late daughter-in-law.

Garo hosted his own 2 hour radio talk show in Miami, live T.V. talk show for NBC as well as a weekly football prediction show. Garo's book, "I Keek a Touchdown" is his autobiography. He has also written "The Win-Win Book" a tool to motivate athletes of all ages through the ideals of teamwork and "Tales from the Miami Dolphins" a humorous recounting of his years playing for the Dolphins. In 2002, he spent Super Bowl Sunday entertaining the U.S. Army peacekeeping troops in Bosnia.

Yepremian is recognized as one of the foremost motivational speakers of our time as he combines his own brand of down to earth humor and wit with his ability to help his audience realize their own talents, abilities and potential in life. He evokes charm and enthusiasm that is heartfelt and genuine. Garo has the power to captivate his audiences and make them laugh, think, get motivated and share his pride of country.
