Marcel Pronovost

Marcel Pronovost became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1978. His career included 1,206 games over 20 seasons.

Marcel debuted with the Detroit Red Wings in the 1950 playoffs. He toiled for the Wings for the next 15 seasons. He was a hard-hitting defenseman with great offensive talents. He won 4 Stanley Cups in Detroit playing with greats such as Gordie Howe, Alex Delvecchio and Terry Sawchuk.

In 1965, Marcel was traded to Toronto in a multi-player deal involving another Hall of Famer Andy Bathgate. He then played 5 seasons in Toronto winning another Cup in 1967.

In his career, Pronovost was named to the First All Star Team in 1960 and 1961 and to the Second All Star Team in 1958 and 1959. He was also named to play in 11 all-star games.

The Pronovost family had some hockey talent amongst their 12 children. Not only did Marcel make the Hall of Fame, but brother Jean was a 50-goal scorer for the Penguins and a third brother Claude played 3 NHL games as a goaltender in Boston and Montreal.
