Pierre Pilote

Unbelievably, Pierre didn't play organized hockey until the age of 17 and yet by age 24 was starring in the NHL for the Chicago Blackhawks.

Pierre debuted for Chicago in 1955-56 and played 13 seasons in Chicago before spending his last season in Toronto with the Maple Leafs. He stood only 5'10, but still packed a punch as he hit hard and often. Pierre was never afraid to rush the puck and his 418 NHL assists show that he did that well. He won the Stanley Cup with the Hawks in 1961 and that fall was named captain of the team.

Pierre was a First Team All Star 5 times (1963 – 1967) and a Second Team All Star 3 times (1960 – 1962). He also played in 8 all-star games and won the James Norris Trophy as the NHL's best defenseman 3 times in 1963, 1964, and 1965.

Pierre Pilote was appropriately voted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1975 as one of the best defensemen of his era and of all-time.
